MINNESOTA PUBLIC HEALTH ASSOCIATION
HARVEY G. ROGERS ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH LEADERSHIP AWARD

Background

The Harvey G. Rogers Award was established in 1963 “to honor those persons who best exemplify his spirit of dedication, years of distinguished service and technical contributions toward promotion of the public's health through preservation of a quality environment for the State of Minnesota”. It is named for Harvey G. Rogers who served for 34 years with Minnesota Department of Health until his retirement in 1961. In those years, he earned the growing respect and admiration of his professional associates and friends who established the award in his honor.
