

Poster Presentations

Day 2: Friday, April 26, 2024

Ballroom

- 21 Centering Community Voices and Experiences: A Photovoice Collaboration with Our Streets MPLS and Cedar-Riverside Local Business Owners
Presented by Connie Vang (She/Her), MPH Graduate Student, St. Catherine University; Melika Espahbodi (She/Her), MPH graduate student, St. Catherine University
Susi Keefe (She/Her), Ph.D., Program Director and Associate Professor of Masters of Public Health at St. Catherine University; Yasmin Hirsi, Advocacy Coordinator, Our Streets Minneapolis; Anthony Meng (He/Him), Volunteer; Jamie Carlson (She/Her), MPH graduate student, St. Catherine University.
- 22 Culturally Responsive Grant Management: Finding Balance Between Systems and Community
Presented by Laura Villarreal (She/They), MPH, Grants and Contract Manager, DHS, OMMD; Kristi Halvarson (She/Her), MHA, Grant and Contract Manager, DHS, OMMD; Yeeleng Vue (He/Him), MA, Grants and Contract Manager.
- 23 Domestic Labor and Health During COVID-19
Presented by Bridget Lavish (She/Her), Ph.D., MPH, Career and Health Professions Specialist, Augsburg University; Adjunct Faculty, Public Health and Gender, Women's, and Sexuality Studies, Oklahoma State University.
- 24 Elevating Narratives of BIPOC Women Survivors of Sexual Violence to Enhance the Criminal Legal Response in Ramsey County, MN: MNJRC's Survivors of Sexual Violence Engagement Project
Presented by Kailee Schaberg (She/They), Graduate Student (University of Minnesota School of Public Health) and Research Assistant (Minnesota Justice Research Center); Sharin Park, Research Manager, Survivors of Sexual Violence Engagement Project at Minnesota Justice Research Center; Paulina Buitrago, Social Science Research Assistant at Minnesota Justice Research Center; Dr. Katie Remington Cunningham, Research Director at Minnesota Justice Research Center.
- 25 Embedding Cultural Communications at MDH
Presented by Elise Olson (She/Her), Public Health Coordinator/AmeriCorps Member, Cultural Communications, Communication Office, MDH; Emily Batres (She/Her), Cultural Communications Coordinator, Communications Office, MDH; Dan-Tam Phan-Hoang (She/Her), Cultural Communications Director, Communications Office, MDH.

- 26 Examining Subgroup Differences in the Three Leading Causes of Death among Minnesota Children and Teens During 2018 - 2022
Presented by Natasha Kataeva (She/Her), MPH, Epidemiologist, Arundel Metrics, Inc.
- 27 “I do what needs to be done:” Communicating Student Needs and Challenges with Campus Food Insecurity
Presented by Rebekah Thurner, MPH Graduate Student, St. Catherine University, and co-authored by Susi Keefe (She/Her), Ph.D., Program Director and Associate Professor, Masters in Public Health, St. Catherine University.
- 28 “If I report, people may say that I’m the loose one”: Barriers to reporting sexual violence against school-aged girls in a rural community in Kenya
Presented by Hannah Olson (She/Her), MPH(c), MPH Candidate, Global Health, St. Catherine University Department of Public Health.
- 29 Navigating and Communicating Public Health: A Role for Advanced Dental Therapists in Patient-Centered Care
Presented by Sonika Masih, Assistant Professor, Dental Education, Minnesota State University, Mankato; Anitha Peddireddy, Director Advanced Dental Therapy Program, Dental Education, Minnesota State University, Mankato.
- 30 Public Mental Health Promotion: Using a Socio-Ecological Model to Reframe Mental Health and Well-Being Presented by Ashlee Cermak, (She/Her), MPH Candidate, Graduate Maternal & Child Health student, University of Minnesota SPH; Paige J. Erickson (She/They), MPH, Freelance Project Coordinator and Interim Instructor, University of Minnesota SPH.
- 31 Stewarding Engagement and Dismantling Agency Silos Through a Community of Practice
Presented by Elisabeth Atherly, Health Equity Data Collaboration Coordinator, Office of Data Strategy & Interoperability, MDH.
- 32 Supporting Community-Based Rehabilitation Partnerships in Resource-Limited Settings
Presented by Laura Schulz (She/Her), MPH Candidate, Student Research Associate, Public Health, St. Catherine University.
- 33 The Breast Cancer Champions: A Peer-to-Peer program to reduce the burden of breast cancer in communities of African Heritage in MN
Presented by Gay Lynn Richards (She/Her), DNP RN MPH, Breast Cancer Champion Coordinator, Breast Cancer Education Association; Benita Robinson (She/Her), Health Program Representative, Sage Screening Programs, Cancer Control Section, MDH; Fowzia Abdullahi (She/Her), Community Health Worker Coordinator, Pillsbury United Communities, Brian Coyle Center.

34 The impact of urbanization on marginalized populations and businesses: A systematic review

Presented by Jamie Carlson (She/Her), St. Kate's MPH Student; Susi Keefe (She/Her), Ph.D., Program Director and Associate Professor, Masters in Public Health, St. Catherine University.

35 The Importance of Culturally Responsive Dietitians in Polycystic Ovarian Syndrome (PCOS)

Presented by Laura Villarreal (She/They), MPH, Grants and Contract Manager, DHS, OMMD; Daisy Corona (She/Ella), BS, Population Health Specialist Policy Intern.

36 Trans Youth: A Population at Risk

Presented by Marc A. Markell, Ph.D., CT, Professor Emeritus.

37 Will Minnesota Have Safe Drinking Water in 2034?

Presented by Frieda von Qualen (She/Her), MDP, Strategic Initiatives Coordinator, Water Policy Center, MDH; Tannie Eshenaur (She/Her), MPH, Manager, Water Policy Center, MDH.

38 Youth Intersectional Identity and Place-Based Interventions on Mental Health

Presented by Denny Vang (He/Him), MPH, Management Analyst, Center for Health Stats, MDH; Nan Watts (She/They), BA, Public Health AmeriCorps Member, Center for Health Stats, MDH.